

“All Changed, Changed Utterly:
A Terrible Beauty Is Born.”

On The Occasion Of The 100th Anniversary
Of W. B. Yeats' Poem
“Easter, 1916”

Please Join Us Sunday, September 25, 2016 At 3PM
At The Rhode Island Irish Famine Memorial Park
(Located Along The Providence Riverwalk)
For A Reading Of This Classic Work
Accompanied By The Live Sounds Of Irish Music By Tim Keohane

This Event Is Provided By The Rhode Island
Irish Famine Memorial Committee And The Rhode Island 1916 Irish Centenary Committee

Afterwards, Please Join Us At
The Wild Colonial Tavern
250 South Water St.
Providence, RI

This Event Is Free To All Wishing To Attend!

Donations In Any Amount Are Greatly Appreciated. Your Generosity Provides These Fine Committees The Means With Which To Provide Events And Cultural Programs That
Expose Rhode Islanders To Our Fascinating
Irish History And Heritage.